

Process Technique Electronic (P) Ltd

...making energy matter

Mission

On a continued progress towards our goal of providing the latest in power quality and energy management, solutions and services for our trusted and growing client base. Supported with necessary technical knowledge.

Vision

To provide variety of products and solutions and support special engineering and design skills in product applications. We continuously strive to live up to our slogan of “... making energy matter” significantly to all cross-section of users. This has already been the case for over 45,000+ of our clients who have saved energy and secured their installation, with better and reliable power factor management, power protection, and energy management in their operations, using PTL’s products.

TECHNOLOGY PARTNERS

